Why have I come to Edimburgh this summer?

During my time in Scotland, I want to achieve another step forward in my life. I want to prove myself that I am able to live by myself in another unknown country.

Furthermore, I have a very specific in mind, becoming completely fluent in English. Even if the feedback I have received about my English level usually is very encouraging, I am sure using it in my daily live with natives will be, a part of a challenge, the push my English needs to excel.

Also, and in a more personal note, I became very interested in Scottish culture after seeing the TV show and reading the novels of Outlander. Visiting the places of this history could be really exciting experience.

So, why should you hire me?

- I will work so hard to ensure my goal of living by myself during this time, and make the choice of hiring me a great decision.
- I am a very punctual and organized person.
- I care about my image, which makes a good feeling to the customers.
- I have quite good social skills, and easiness to make social relationships. I will make your customers happy, which will make my employeeer happy.
- I am an openminded person, which has experience treating with people and friends from different cultures, such as Americans, Australians, Japanese, Belgian etc.
